BETTER LIVING

Warhol imagery

The Hebrew Home at Riverdale, 5901 Palisade Ave., presents 'Dear Andy: Postcards from Montauk,' an exhibition of works by Brooklyn-based artist Mel Smothers, now on display through Sunday, May 10. This installation features a collection of Mr. Smothers' unique postcard-style paintings, which he symbolically addresses to Andy Warhol to establish a posthumous dialogue with the prominent pop artist in regard to pop culture and the natural world. In each piece, Mr. Smothers unites recognizable Warholian images with organic subjects such as jellyfish and birds, as well as with inanimate objects that might be found washed up on a beach. Admission is free and open to the public. Call 718-581-1596 for more information.
